INTERCULTURAL TRAINER ACADEMY

Intercultural competence is widely considered to be one of the key skills needed to succeed in ever more diverse societies and workplaces. Still, it is one thing to acquire intercultural competence, but quite another to pass it on to others. It requires extensive knowledge and skills.

This is what the Intercultural Trainer Academy will equip you with. It is an intensive 10-day program that does not only allow you to deepen your understanding of theoretical frameworks regarding intercultural learning, but also to further develop your practical competencies and knowledge, enabling you to work as an intercultural trainer in various settings including face-to-face as well as online trainings. Upon successful completion of the course, participants are awarded the certificate “Intercultural Trainer” issued by InterCultur gGmbH.

Target Group

- Trainers interested in intercultural context
- Professionals, teachers, practitioners
- Advanced university students

Instructors

- Prof. Annette Gisevius, InterCultur gGmbH
- Nele Beck, InterCultur gGmbH
- Dr. Nadine Binder, Training and Coaching

The Intercultural Trainer Academy combines a rich theoretical perspective with hands-on practical elements, enabling participants:

- to deepen their understanding of culture and how it influences human perception, cognition, and behaviour
- to familiarize themselves with training design principles, training methods, basics of visualization, and didactic skills
- to develop their facilitation skills in different practice session.
