INTERCULTURAL TRAINER ACADEMY

Intercultural competence is widely recognized as essential for thriving in today's diverse societies and workplaces. However, while acquiring this skill is crucial, effectively imparting it to others demands specialized knowledge and expertise. That's where our Intercultural Trainer Academy comes in. Our intensive 10-day program goes beyond theory, providing you with practical skills and insights necessary to excel as an intercultural trainer. Whether in face-to-face or online settings, you'll deepen your understanding of intercultural frameworks and enhance your ability to facilitate meaningful learning experiences. Upon successful completion, participants receive the prestigious "Intercultural Trainer" certificate from InterCultur gGmbH, validating their expertise in the field.

Target Group

- Trainers interested in intercultural context
- Professionals, teachers, practitioners
- Advanced university students

Instructors

- Prof. Annette Gisevius, InterCultur gGmbH
- Prof. Dr. Ulrich Kühnen, Constructor University
- Dr. Nadine Binder, Training and Coaching

The Intercultural Trainer Academy combines a rich theoretical perspective with hands-on practical elements, enabling participants:

- to deepen their understanding of culture and how it influences human perception, cognition, and behaviour
- to familiarize themselves with training design principles, training methods, basics of visualization, and didactic skills
- to develop their facilitation skills in individual practice sessions.
